

Twain2 FLM Conference System

The Twain2 FLM Conference System is a user-friendly flush-mount solution for the Executive sector where elegant design combined with exceptional quality is important. The FLM System can be customized to a high degree to suit the ambiance and theme of particular venues without compromising quality. The specific design will be determined by the challenges of a particular venue regarding aesthetics and practicality.

ires

Robust construction Attractive and elegant design Dual power - 12 Volt DC or 110/220 Volt AC Integrated power inputs for large systems Multiple recording outputs USB computer interface Recording volume control Chairman override 140 Watt built-in amplifier Proprietary dual line inputs (no mixer required)

“Be on the same page”

